

THE 2020 WEEKLY TWEETERBOARD

Monitoring the Conversation About the Presidential Campaigns

The PEORIA Project: Listening to Public Echoes of Rhetoric in America

March 2 – March 8, 2020: The week in which Biden has the most mentions on Twitter and Warren drops out of the race. Meanwhile, the past resurfaces for him, Warren, and Sanders. Anyone else feeling the Bern?
 Not counting private insurance companies and Biden, of course.

this just goes to show how politicians will say anything to garner support but will be so quick to change their beliefs when people point out how it's wrong. MEANWHILE bernie has always shown his honest nature and has never strayed from his beliefs.

It would make the private insurance companies very, very angry if you retweeted this.

Get real, Joe. One of us has a history of not only fighting cuts to Social Security but working to expand benefits. And that's why we are the campaign best positioned to defeat Donald Trump.

Joe Biden (Text Join to 30330) ✓ @JoeBiden · Mar 5

Get real, Bernie. The only person who's going to cut Social Security if he's elected is Donald Trump. Maybe you should spend your time attacking him. twitter.com/BernieSanders/...

It's been a week since the killing of Muslims in Delhi by pro-Modi Hindu nationalist mobs.

Has Tulsi Gabbard said anything yet? Anything?

Molly Crabapple 🇺🇸 ✓ @mollycrabapple · Feb 26

Still no word from Tulsi on the deadly pogroms in Delhi that her friend Modi has stoked
