

THE 2020 WEEKLY TWEETERBOARD

Monitoring the Conversation About the Presidential Campaigns

The PEORIA Project: Listening to Public Echoes of Rhetoric in America

November 4 – 10, 2019: The week in which the same voices took the top spots and a new voice makes a dent by referencing several candidates in a single tweet with a cutting comment about racial attitudes in the so-called party of diversity.

Put this ABC-Epstein news in context:

They sat on this story for 3 years

What was 3 years ago?

Donald Trump vs. Hillary Clinton

Who was implicated in the Epstein story?

Bill Clinton

Now do you understand why ABC decided the story wasn't up to their "editorial standards"

The fact that each random billionaire's thoughts on Elizabeth Warren is a news story is itself a powerful demonstration of the disproportionate political influence of the very rich.

Did you know:

Ilhan Omar called for an end to “Western Imperialism” last night at a Bernie Sanders rally

This is the same Bernie Sanders who praised China for their record on human rights and “eradicating poverty”

The Democrat party has become the pro-China party

Shameful.

Kamala Harris says her campaign is failing because people aren't ready for a woman of color to be president.

The funny part is, this is the primary, not the general election.

So the people she is accusing of racism are Democratic primary voters.

Cory Booker and Julián Castro both have more experience in congress and the senate. Both Cory Booker and Julián Castro have a track record in getting bills passed and have worked with others to improve the nation.
