Monitoring the Conversation About the Presidential Campaigns

The PEORIA Project: Listening to Public Echoes of Rhetoric in America

September 11 – 18, 2019: The week when BrooklynDad_Defiant professes support for Pete Buttigieg and takes a swipe at Trump while urging Maine voters to end Senator Collins's political career, prompted by the reappearance of Justice Kavanaugh in the news (whom Collins voted to confirm).

Remember Senator Susan Collins?

You know, the one who pretended to wring her hands over Brett Kavanaugh, before voting him in?

She's the one who cast the DECIDING vote to steal Military funds for trump's wall.

Please, Maine: END her political career.

Collins cast deciding vote to let Trump take money from military families for ...
Sen. Susan Collins (R-ME) claims she is opposed to Trump stealing money from the military to build a wall, but she doesn't vote that way.

Somebody gotta say it: The overwhelming support for Joe Biden is based purely off fear that white folks won't vote for anyone else on that stage. Because there is no way you see him in these moments and think he's actually the best candidate.

I like Joe and will vote for him if he's the nominee. But he's not my preferred candidate because a lot of his experience is at being wrong about stuff. IMO that matters too.

Honestly, as a Canadian I can't understand why any American opposes universal healthcare. It tells every citizen they will be cared for, no matter what. It isn't perfect but it's pretty damn good.

Bernie Sanders just called for a complete ban on deportations

America has:

22 million illegal aliens

Up to 1 million new illegal aliens crossing this year alone

And he wants none of them to leave and all of them to have taxpayer-funded health insurance

Bernie is a disaster!

When I watch Mayor Pete Buttigieg speak, there's something so calming and soothing in his demeanor.

It reminds me of a time when our President was well-spoken, caring, and competent.

This dude is GREAT.

His utterances of taking away rifles just made me want to buy a few more & ammo.

These liberals don't get it. The more you threaten us. The more true patriots respond.

The AR-15 is this era's musket. It might be suitably deemed the "American Rifle (AR)." It must remain in the hands of the citizens; as a citizenry, armed with the rifle, is the final line of defense of your liberty in this world ~
