BASIC INFORMATION AND RESOURCES

Instructor
For most of his career, Gene has worked in politics at either the electoral or policy levels. A veteran Hill staffer, he has worked for several members of Congress and developed a working knowledge of the appropriations and budget processes. Currently, he serves as Director of Legislative Affairs for the District of Columbia Department of Employment Services (DOES). Previously he worked for the Council of District of Columbia where he was Director of the Committee on Business, Consumer, and Regulatory Affairs. The Committee has jurisdiction over workforce development, labor standards, wage replacement programs, small business development policy; business regulatory and consumer affairs; the regulation, sale and distribution of alcoholic products. Gene earned a BS in history from Campbell University, an MA in political management from The George Washington University, and an MA in national security and strategic studies from the U.S. Naval War College. He serves on the Advisory Council of North Carolina State University's School of Public and International Affairs.

Email Address: gene.fisher.dc@gmail.com

Communication
Best phone number to reach me is the (202) 281-8725. I am prompt when responding to email correspondence, and I always acknowledge receipt of email communications. If you do not receive a response from me within 4 to 5 hours, please either text or call me. If you desire to meet with me personally, I am generally available after class. I am available to meet with students most evenings after 5 pm and by appointment on weekends.

Blackboard Site
A Blackboard course site has been set up for this course. Many course materials will be posted and each student is expected to check the site throughout the semester. I regularly email students when new material is posted on the Blackboard site. Students can access the course site at https://blackboard.gwu.edu. Support for Blackboard is available at 202-994-4948 or helpdesk.gwu.edu.
Academic Integrity
All members of the university community are expected to exhibit honesty and competence in their academic work. Students have a special responsibility to acquaint themselves with, and make use of, all proper procedures for doing research, writing papers, and taking exams. Members of the community will be presumed to be familiar with the proper academic procedures and will be held responsible for applying them. Deliberate failure to act in accordance with such procedures will be considered academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty is defined as “cheating of any kind, including misrepresenting one’s own work, taking credit for the work of others without crediting them and without appropriate authorization, and the fabrication of information.” Acts of academic dishonesty are a legal, moral, and intellectual offense against the community and will be prosecuted through the proper university channels. The University Code of Academic Integrity can be found at http://studentconduct.gwu.edu/code-academic-integrity.

Support for Students with Disabilities
GW’s Disability Support Services (DSS) provides and coordinates accommodations and other services for students with a wide variety of disabilities, as well as those temporarily disabled by injury or illness. Accommodations are available through DSS to facilitate academic access for students with disabilities. Please notify your instructor if you require accommodations. Additional information is available at http://disabilitysupport.gwu.edu/.

In the Event of an Emergency or Crisis during Class
If we experience an emergency during class time, we will try to stay at this location until we hear that we can move about safely. If we have to leave here, we will meet at [fill in proximate location] in order to account for everyone and to make certain that everyone is safe. Please refer to Campus Advisories for the latest information on the University’s operating status: http://www.campusadvisories.gwu.edu/.

Attendance Policy
Students’ are not graded on attendance; however, they are reminded that class participation accounts for 20 percent of the course grade. Students who do not contribute to class discussion are graded accordingly.

Course Evaluation
At the end of the semester, students will be given the opportunity to evaluate the course through GW’s online course evaluation system. It is very important that you take the time to complete an evaluation. At the course’s end, the professor will ask students to complete an anonymous course evaluation. Students are also encouraged to provide feedback throughout the course of the semester by contacting any/all of the following:

THE COURSE

Legislative Affairs Program Objectives
Upon completion of the Master’s degree in Legislative Affairs, students will:
1. Gain both theoretical and practical knowledge related to the U.S. Congress, general issues in the legislative arena, and how to effectively advance legislation;
2. Hone their oral and written communication skills in both theoretical and technical aspects of legislative affairs;
3. Be able to conduct cutting-edge research and engage in effective problem solving by learning critical thinking skills;
4. Learn how to work effectively with others, the value of collaborative work, and will understand ethical issues involved in the legislative arena.

Course Description and Overview
The Politics and Public Policy course is about policy processes, making choices and getting things done in our political institutions, principally at the federal level. The course looks at process models and policy choice theories decision makers use to achieve positive political outcomes and solutions to public policy problems.

Course Learning Objectives
Course objectives are to expand the students’ understanding and knowledge of the particular concepts that influence the policy process, including the study of process models and policy choice theories. Specific learning objectives for the course are to:

1. Increase the ability to perform effectively as a decision maker or staff member in a political institution’s decision-making structure;
2. Apply critical thinking and analyze policy decisions and implementation involving complex political issues; and
3. Increase understanding of key concepts and issues that impact on, and are useful in developing policy solutions, making policy choices, and addressing public policy challenges within the political environment.

Course Requirements

Short Essays
Each student will be required to write and submit at least two summary essays of one page in length in memo form (approximately 500 - 750 words), single spaced (or two pages, double-spaced) analyzing topics assigned in class. These essays will be assigned at roughly equal intervals over the course of the semester. Essays will focus on analyzing key concepts, principles and, where appropriate, historical phenomena or case studies covered in course readings and other relevant material. Although some of the readings deal with historical case studies, students should avoid straying into factual or historical narration such as dates, proper names and detailed descriptions of events. The emphasis is to focus on key concepts and principles of public policy analysis.

Group Project

Students will participate in a group project, policy-development exercise to cover the concepts discussed in this course. From this exercise students will gain an understanding of how policy process works. Elements of the project will require groups to:

- Analyze and define a public issue/problem;
- Develop a solution;
- Examine the solution’s strengths and limitations;
- Consider alternatives;
- Discuss expected outcomes;
- Develop plans to advance an issue to the government’s agenda; and
- Identify key official and unofficial actors.

The exercise will require policy groups to prepare a policy decision memo and make a 15-minute policy proposal presentation before a panel of experienced judges.
